Additional information about the declaration of the existence of the relationship and the urgent reason for entry for joint short-term travel to Germany by unmarried couples

Please note:

This form serves as proof for air carriers and border officials of a permitted reason for entry during the SARS-CoV-2 pandemic. You must keep this form and any other necessary documents with you when travelling and during your stay.

This document is not a substitute for any visa that may be required. For this reason, nationals of countries that do not belong to the EU who are subject to a visa requirement need a valid visa in addition to this form.

It is, however, not necessary to present a consular certificate. For this reason, the German diplomatic missions abroad do not issue such consular certificates. Instead, please use this form and keep it with you when travelling and during your stay.

Since 10 August 2020, joint short-term travel to Germany by unmarried couples (for a maximum of 90 days within a 180-day period) has been possible under the following conditions:

a. Conditions:

One partner is a German citizen, a citizen of another European Union member state, a citizen of Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway or Switzerland. The relationship/partnership is established for the long term and the partners share a residence in a country outside of Germany. There is an urgent reason for entry (such as a birth, wedding or funeral of a close relative).

b. When entering Germany, the couple should be able to present suitable documents to prove that this is the case:

- the declaration by both partners of the existence of their relationship and the urgent reason for travel (page 1), and
- evidence of the existence of the relationship, in particular evidence of a current shared residence in a country outside of Germany.

Photos or communication via letters, email or social media can provide additional evidence of a relationship.
