

National visa

Family reunion with a German citizen

General Information

If the applicant is married or will get married to a German citizen, or if the applicant is a parent of a German (unborn) child and wishes to reside permanently in Germany (or stay longer than 3 months) in order to live with the family, it is required to obtain a residence permit in the form of a visa.

- In case of a family reunion with a German spouse or fiancé the applicant needs to prove basic German language skills when applying for the visa.
- Processing the visa application takes up to 12 weeks upon submission of complete documents. The residence permit can be issued only upon approval by the competent authorities in Germany. The applicant will receive a prompt notification upon completion of the processing. We ask that no status request is made if the required processing period has not yet passed.
- After the application has been approved, the German Embassy will only issue an entry permit in a form of a visa. A final residence permit for the whole duration of the stay will be granted in Germany by the Aliens Authority. The Foreigners Authority requires all residence permit holders to register upon their first arrival.
- It is recommended that no flight ticket is purchased until a visa has been granted!
- Further documentation may be requested in each individual case.
- Foreign documents issued in other language than English or German have to be submitted an official translation.
- Please note that foreign certificates must be recognized legally for Germany. Therefore, Bahraini certificates need a so-called "Apostille". Please see our website for further information.
- Each applicant must submit one set of copies with all the following documents. (Copies will not be made by the Embassy.)
